

FACT SHEET CIM 2019

- CISV In Motion is a conference, in general is not a training. This is about networking, energizing your chapter members, and getting the overall CISV picture.
- WHO should attend? JB chapter officers, adult Chapter Rep and Chapters are encouraged to send adult and JB members who can attend all of the break-out sessions on Saturday in order to take the information back to the chapters.
- EVERYONE must register to attend. Registration pricing is per person. Registration link is:

- Transportation to and from the airport is NOT provided. Lyft or Uber is an option along with public transportation, the MARTA.
- WHAT to wear? Comfortable clothing for the weekend. Football jerseys are encouraged for the Football Pool Saturday evening.
- We are going green (as much as possible) - please plan accordingly.
- Our theme is Sustainability in Action!
- MEALS – Please eat before the start of your session on Thursday (dinner is not provided) Friday breakfast at the hotel (for those arriving Thursday), Friday dinner, Saturday breakfast, Saturday dinner and Sunday breakfast will be provided. LUNCH IS ON YOUR OWN. A list of nearby restaurants will be provided at the registration desk.
- HOTEL ROOMS – Please make arrangements with roommates BEFORE registering. Note that the single, double, triple listings refer to the number of people in the room (occupancy).
- CHAPERONES – Each chapter is asked to provide an adult chaperone who will attend all JB events starting Thursday evening. This person should be determined before registering so that JB attendees list the correct chaperone name on their registration. Chapters who cannot send a chaperone should contact the National JB Advisor, Bradford Rush @ brush32691@gmail.com.

- STORE – Chapters are encouraged to bring merchandise to sell. Every item must have a sticker on it indicating the chapter name and price. Additionally, every chapter needs to provide a list of merchandise to assist with easier check outs. Credit cards are accepted. We want to encourage full attendance at every session; therefore, these are the Store hours will not take place while sessions are running.
- Each Chapter PLEASE remember to bring a Silent Auction and Raffle item to CIM! The funds all go to Scholarship - each year the number of requests for scholarship help grows! Anything works - a gift card to a National chain, an item of jewelry, something "native" to your region (wine, chocolate, ??). For the raffle, an item from your store works - a tee shirt, luggage tag, etc.
